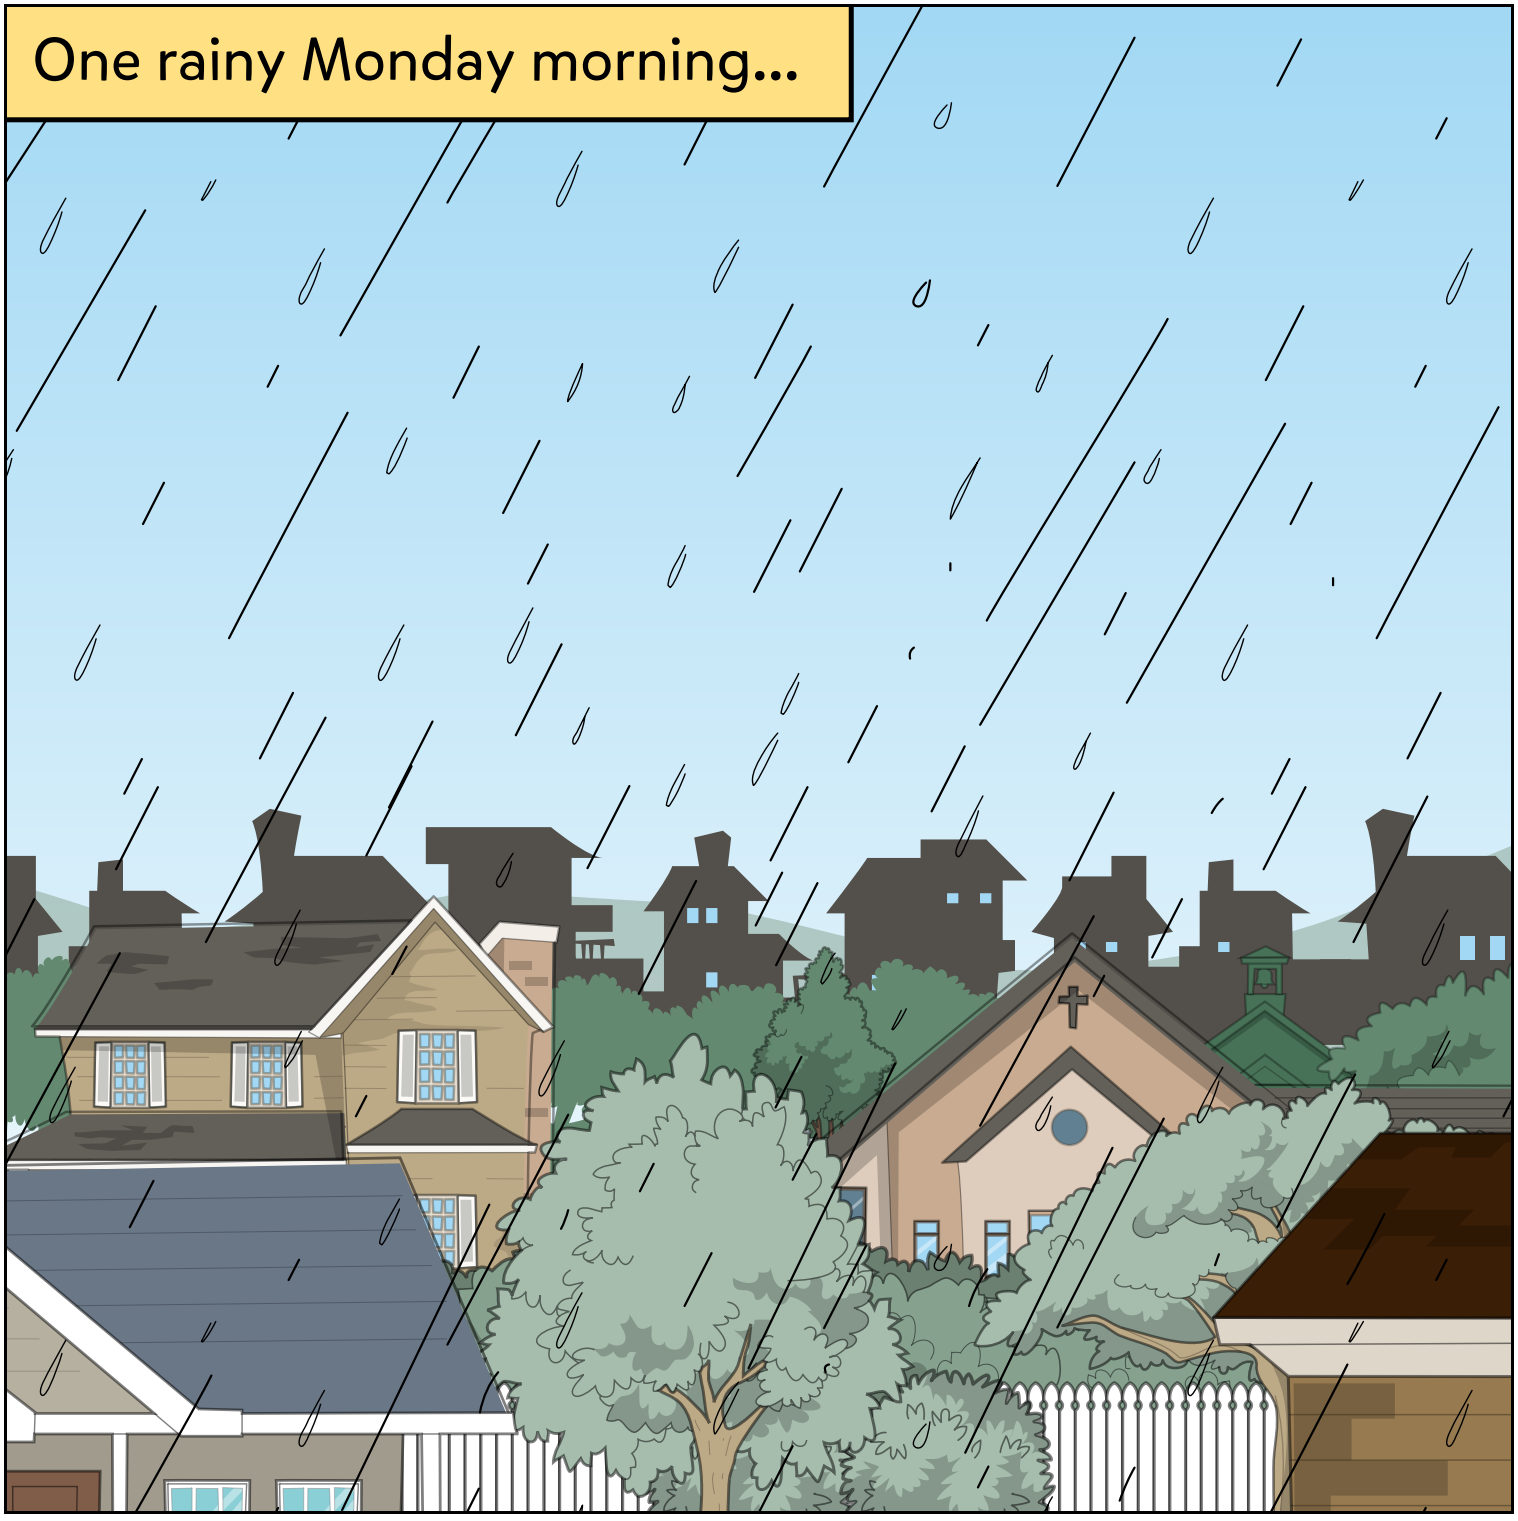
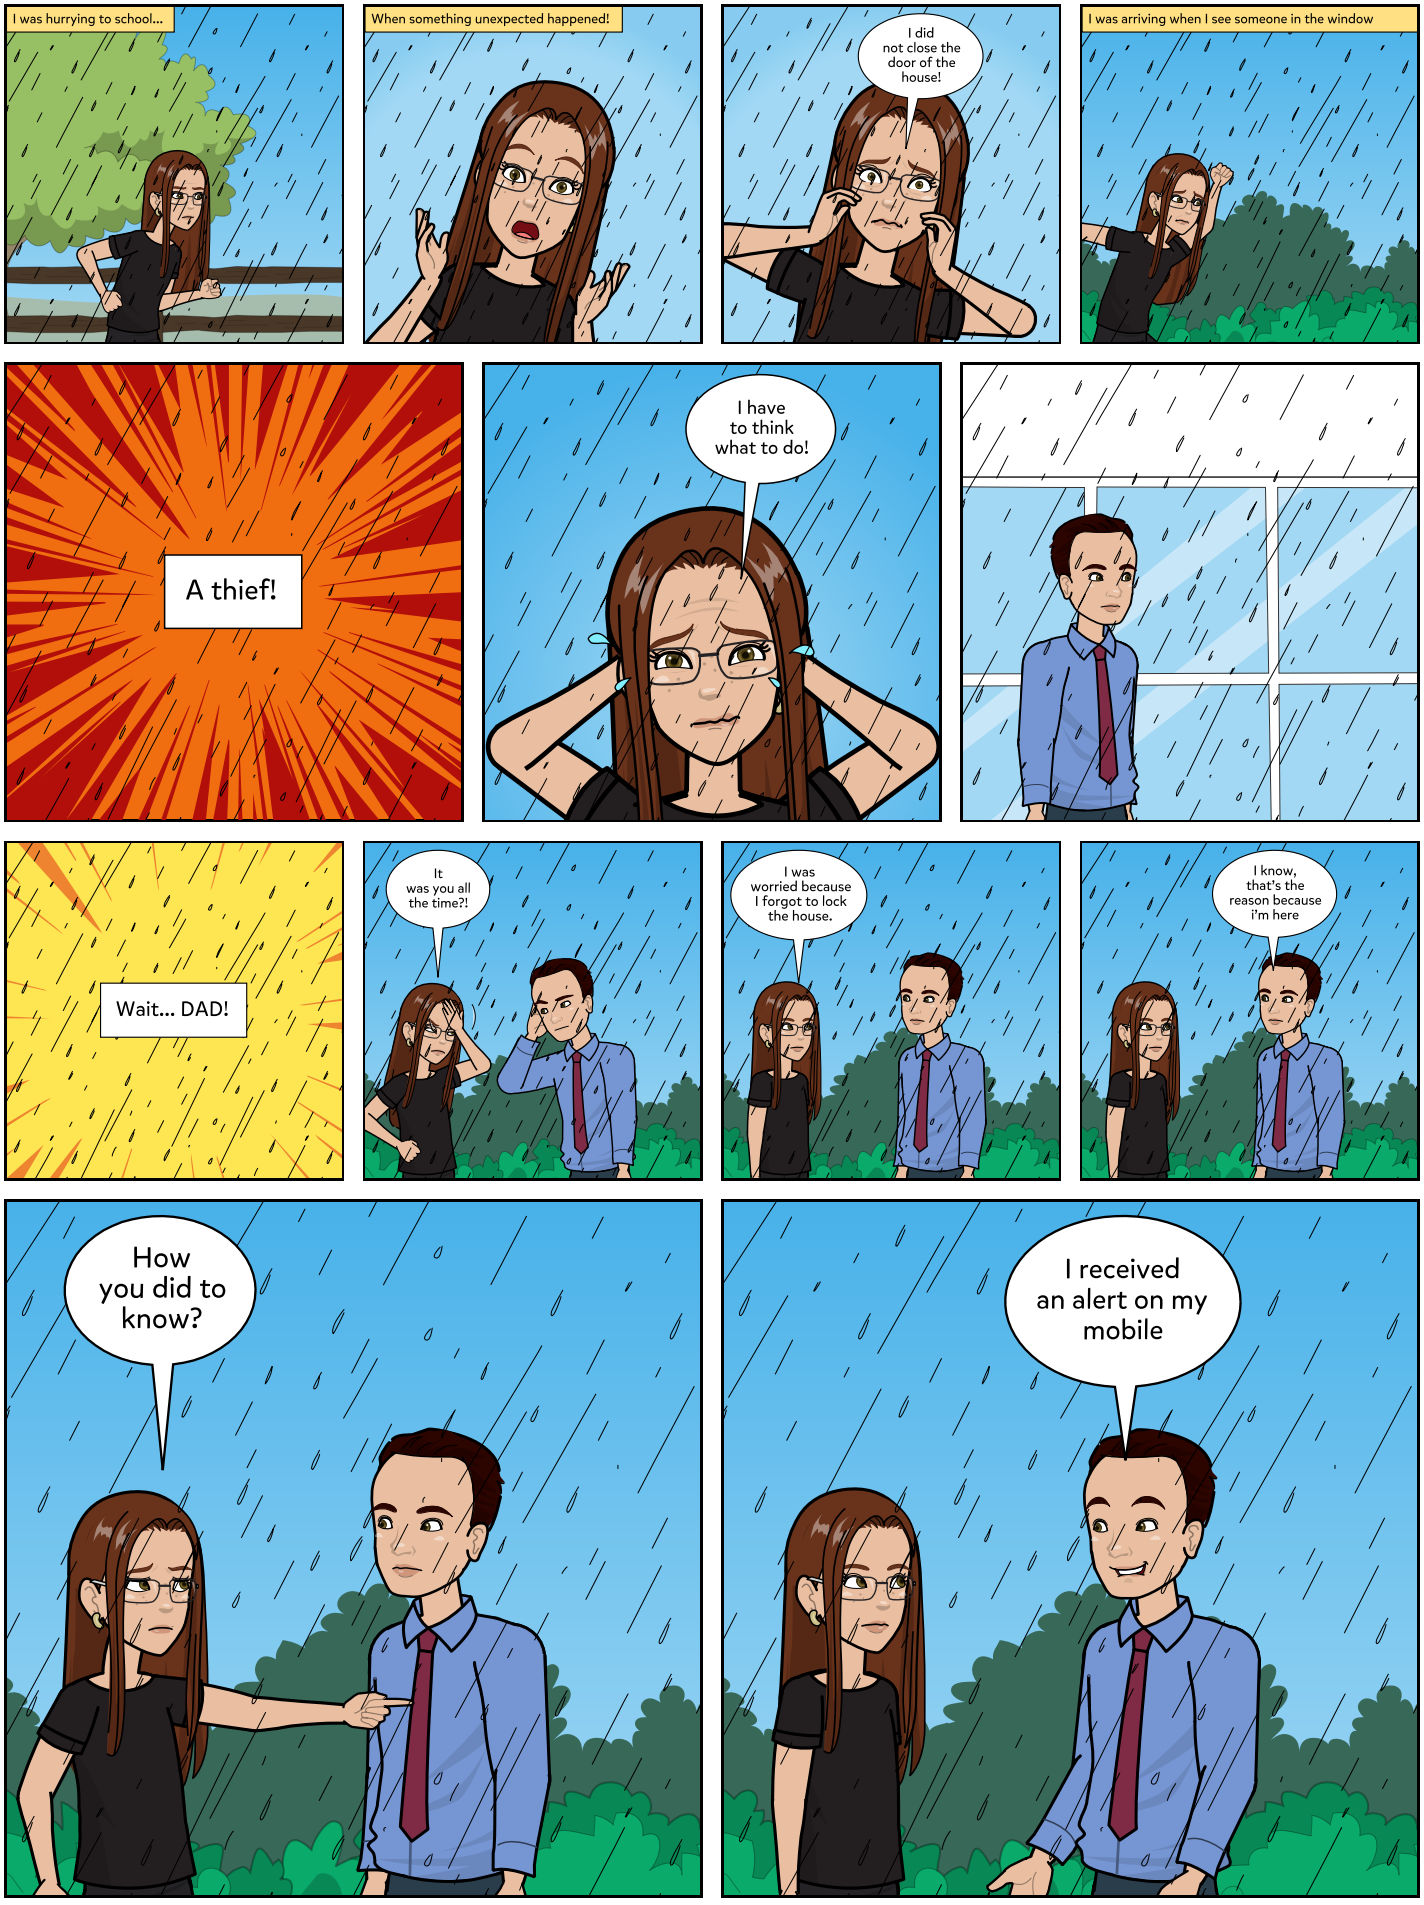
A normal day

By Maria





I was hurrying to school...
When something unexpected happened!
I did not close the door of the house!
I was arriving when I see someone in the window
A thief!
I have to think what to do!
Wait... DAD!
It was you all the time?!
I was worried because I forgot to lock the house.
I know, that's the reason because i'm here
How you did to know?
I received an alert on my mobile

And can't you tell me that if I forgot you would close it?
Bye
I'm late for school because of you Bye
THE END
